Our Memorial Service was held as usual on May 29 in order not to conflict with services in near-by towns. After decorating at Bean cemetery, services were held at Lamprey's hall at 2 o'clock. The graves in Pleasant View cemetery were also decorated. The procession of veterans and school children was escorted by the Center Harbor band. Reveille was sounded by Bugler Elmer Huntress.

F. W. Gilbert of Somerville, Mass., was orator of the day and delivered a stirring and feeling address, paying tribute to the brave men of '61, whose ranks are thinning fast, and to our boys just engaging in the terrible conflict in France.

Raymond Clough delivered Lincoln's address in an impressive manner, followed by exercises and music by school children and the band.

Report of School Board

At the opening of the school year the schools were in charge of the same teachers as the year before, with the exception of the Hawkins. Miss Sheldrick and Miss Glidden at the village, Mrs. Mary E. Lovett at the Town House and Mrs. Pearl Wiloughby at the Hawkins. In the spring the Board united the village schools, and Mrs. Laura J. Clark of Hollis was placed in charge.

At the annual meeting Miss M. Grace Woodward was elected a member of the School Board, but declined to qualify and Wilbur L. White was appointed to fill the vacancy. Later, Mrs. E. B. C. Smith resigned and has since had charge of the Hawkins school. The school year was broken up by schools being closed during the prevailing influenza epidemic by order of the Board of Health. The attendance afterwards was not up to the standard.

We would recommend the selectmen raise by taxation $700 for tuition, $75 for supplies and $25 for flags. New flags are needed at the Hawkins and Town House schools.

The following pupils were on the Roll of Honor:

Village school—Maurice Bickford, third term.

Town House, first and second terms—Oren Blake; for entire year, Alberta Blake, Earle Mack and Thane Preston.

Hawkins, first term—Ariel Marston, Evelyn Marston and Beatrice York; second term, Roger S. Haines, Ariel Marston, Evelyn Marston and Beatrice York.

Respectfully Submitted,

ALBERT E. HUTCHINS,
WILBUR L. WHITE,

School Board of Center Harbor
